› ABOUT OPHÉLIE MERCURY ‹

French-born, Melbourne-based DJ, producer, and label owner Ophélie Mercury is recognized for her deep, emotive, and hypnotic techno and psytrance sound. She began her career in Paris clubs before performing across Europe at iconic venues and major events such as ADE in Amsterdam.

Since relocating to Melbourne in 2016, Ophélie has become a prominent figure in the Australian electronic music scene. In 2021, she became a resident DJ at Eat The Beat and has shared the stage with artists such as Reinier Zonneveld, John Summit, and Adam Beyer, to name a few. She has also performed at major events including Pure by Carl Cox, Hypersonic Festival, Esoteric Festival, and Earth frequency Festival, earning a reputation for dynamic and engaging sets that combine precision with emotional depth.

As a producer, Ophélie has released music on labels including History Recordings, Xtrtxx, Hondas Records, and Extent Records. In 2025, she launched her own label, Echo of Eternity Records, and hosted her own party at Melbourne's New Guernica, further establishing her presence as both a creator and curator in electronic music.

HER MUSIC

Her sets blend hypnotic grooves, driving rhythms, and immersive soundscapes, taking audiences on a journey that resonates beyond the dancefloor. Through her stage presence and musical vision, Ophélie Mercury continues to push creative boundaries and solidify her status as a leading figure in techno and psytrance worldwide.
